YOUR FLOTILLA LEADERS

Mike and Stefanie discovered their shared passion for sailing while in San Francisco, where they both took sailing classes together. Stefanie had been fascinated by sailboats since childhood trips to Chicago, and their joint classes quickly deepened their love for the sport. They both became certified through the American Sailing Association, and safety is always their top priority as they navigate various vessels, from small boats to larger charters.

Their adventures have taken them to stunning locations, including the Puget Sound, Croatia, Sardinia, and Saint Vincent, Turkey and the Grenadines. They cherish the connections made within the sailing community and the unforgettable experiences of exploring secluded coves and charming coastal towns. With dreams of eventually owning a boat to explore the world together with their dog, Mike and Stef are eager to continue their sailing journey, sharing their enthusiasm and inspiring others to embrace the magic of sailing.

SUNDAY

Set sail to the captivating island of Vis, famously featured as the Greek island in Mamma Mia II. On arrival, we'll anchor at the secluded Rogačić Bay for a refreshing swim and an intriguing exploration of the abandoned Cold War military installations. Afterward, we'll head to Vis Harbor, where the evening promises a traditional Dalmatian dinner at Konoba Magica, a charming vineyard nestled in the mountains, offering an authentic taste of island life surrounded by stunning views.

MONDAY

Set sail to the charming village of Komiža, located on the western side of Vis Island. This picturesque Dalmatian fishing village is a beloved stop for sailors, with its quaint streets and scenic beauty. Along the way, we'll pause for refreshing swims in the crystal-clear waters. Upon arriving, we'll secure a mooring ball and head ashore for a relaxed evening. Tonight, we indulge in a fun tradition—pizza, beer, and gelato—enjoyed at one of Komiža's cozy local spots, the perfect way to unwind after a day on the water.

TUESDAY

We will sail along the south coast of Vis Island en route to the island of Hvar, taking time to stop for a swim in one of the island's hidden gems like Uvala Stiniva or Uvala Travna, known for their serene beauty and crystal-clear waters. Our destination is Marina Palmižana on St. Klement Island, located just across from Hvar. Once moored, we'll take a water taxi to explore the vibrant city of Hvar, where you can wander through its historic streets and enjoy dinner at one of the many delightful restaurants ashore.

WEDNESDAY, On the northern side of Hvar Island lies the picturesque port of Vrboska, a charming little haven often described as the "Little Venice" of Croatia. This quaint town offers a peaceful atmosphere, excellent restaurants, and some of the best gelato you'll find along the Dalmatian coast.

We'll make several stops along the way for swimming, and a relaxing lunch amidst the beautiful surroundings. Once we arrive, we'll dock at either the ACI Marina or the municipal marina, depending on availability. The evening promises a delightful dinner ashore, where you can immerse yourself in the timeless beauty of this village, which feels as though it's been frozen in time.

THURSDAY, We cross the Hvarski Kanal to the island of Brač and will sail by the beach of Zlatni Rat, the most photographed beach of Croatia. After a lunch on board and some swimming near Zlatni Rat, we sail to the small fishing port of Milna where we will spend the night.

FRIDAY, We return to the base, with some more swimming and good sailing along the way and arrive around 16:00 at the Baotić Marina where we will refuel before returning to our slips.

You can stay on board on Friday night but, if you do, you will have to disembark by 8:30 on Saturday morning.
